Catherston Springsteen is an eye-catching horse with tremendous presence, a beautiful head and neck and good length of rein. His paces are powerful, expressive and off the ground, he has the most superb, kind temperament. Catherston Springsteen has competed at international Grand Prix, has had numerous wins, both National titles and International placings. Not only has he produced many talented horses, but also riders! He has given a number of upcoming riders, the experience of International level, from Juniors – U25 Grand Prix.

Catherston Springsteen produces stock for all disciplines. He passes on his excellent temperament, balanced paces, cadence and jumping bascule. His stock have gone on very successfully in many different disciplines, including international level at Dressage, Eventing and Show jumping.
